Responses

1. ANTHROPOLOGY, PLEASE!
2. philosophy, Kentucky full-text newspapers
3. Health
4. I have never used these resources and feel inadequate in answering what is needed when I have not taken advantage of what is available
5. Philosophy, Religion, Political Science
6. Political Science
7. I think with budget cuts looming you need to cut down on the number of databases rather than increasing them. Patrons almost have too many choices and there is a lot of duplication. Eliminate those that do not offer full text.
8. Public Records, I would like to find out more about a deceased loved one.
9. nursing
10. children's literature and librarianship
11. drag reduction
12. Biography
13. more nursing, We have several nursing students that use the databases
14. Religion
15. more pictures, more on animals and medical topics
16. Astronomy
17. Data base for library policy and procedures. I'm sure something exists.
18. Grangers World of Poetry Database Grolier Databases for Schools World Book Full Format
19. Poetry Indices
20. more finance
21. I am delighted to see back files being added to several of the databases! This is very helpful in fields such as library science, social sciences, history and psychology.
22. Geography
23. fine arts (academic); genealogy/ancestry (esp for public libraries)
24. mythology, geology,
25. It is not so much the content areas which need to be broadened as much as the age appropriateness of the subjects which should be considered.
26. Arts: Dance, Architecture, Music, Theater, Film, Public Speaking and Speeches
27. Art
28. Pharmacology
29. More Special Education.
30. pre school and child development
31. religion and theology
32. Literary criticisms
33. Book publishing- writing, editing, illustrating, printing, binding, selling
34. art and artists
35. Information about careers, not the career periodicals themselves. Something like "Air Conditioning and Heating Quarterly" is not helpful to students looking for vocational guidance.
36. Careers
37. Music Theatre
38. Art, Music, Humanities
39. Courier Journal Newspaper from Louisville is not included in the newspapers. could we get the NewsBank product?
40. None
41. Science for younger students
42. Anything geared toward elementary students
43. school related databases for middle school students

44. Good database.
45. Health
46. The CINAHL interface is awkward and difficult to use.
47. The arts

49. Art
50. Careers and law/legal sites.
51. genealogy
52. Polymer Science
53. Film
54. Having filled in this questionnaire I've realized you have so many databases that I haven't explored yet. But I will--KYVL is a gold mine.
55. Did not know you offered the above links
56. genealogy law additional newspapers Courier Journal article indexing/archiving by NewsBank is very spotty and inadequate.
57. humanities/arts
58. I'll have to try it out and retake this survey again.
59. Auto mechanics
60. Art
61. pharmacy tech.
62. Not very helpful for my non-college patrons. Some young adult geared resources or limiters might help.

91. I use KYVL very little. I do use the Novelist database sometimes--I also put people on that are looking for medical information.
92. Arts and Humanities
93. full text nursing

94. philosophy
95. Trends in the state of Kentucky including economics, education, energy & environment, finance and business, government and policies, health and welfare, international management and labor, science & technology, social movements and lifestyle, consumer rights.
96. Nursing and Allied Health
97. Literary Criticism, CCC
98. Music; statistics; legal
99. Social Work! Gerontology...
100. better state newspaper coverage
101. The above pretty well covers it.
102. A more user friendly interface would encourage my patrons to use the service. The presentation of a bewildering array of unfamiliar links dissuades staff and patrons alike from using the databases when Yahoo or Google presents a one search covers all single search box. The multi-page linking that must take place to reach real information puts off the few hardy souls who get past the start page.
103. Ebsco host was not listed but I use it all the time. It's a great resource.
104. Philosophy, Philology, Linguistics, Rhetoric
105. More biography databases
106. EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION (pre-school focus) Law Enforcement
107. More on Religion.
108. Kentucky daily newspaper coverage
109. none come to mind
110. I would like to see something else to cover biographies of writers, fiction and nonfiction.
111. Technical Programs, i.e. auto technology; welding; computer drafting and desing.
112. Please be sure to keep good coverage of the following subjects: Health, Business, Current Events, and Computer Science
113. Genealogy
114. I marked Education above because more full text is needed. ERIC is supposed to be the best, but it is no good whatsoever if you can't get the article when you need it. Time is precious. In addition, Art needs to be covered thoroughly especially biographies of artists and Theatre History is becoming a hotter research topic.
115. more full test of newspapers, particulary KY newspapers
116. More higher education university related databases and resources. Services that match higher educ quest for shared library resources among college curriculum such as public health degrees/classes, etc.
117. In regards to education, another database besides ERIC. It is a monopoly and many times is not user friendly.
118. Speech Communication
119. Library Science
120. communication & theater
121. More of the same.
122. We need to get the word out to many, many people in schools and offices and businesses so people will think to use this resource.
123. Philosophy
124. Electric Library and other broad range reference resources.
125. Would like to have more pictures and info available on the Kentuckiana Digital library
126. Teen topics that could be used for research for portfolio pieces.
127. none
128. music
129. Poetry
130. poetry
131. Arts and Humanities
132. I wish there were more biographies!!! Occupational information is available, but we could even use more.
133. Student nurses need the actual articles which are the entire articles published in actual nursing journals. These are required by their nursing courses at ECU and not available in the ECU library. This is a large need!!!!!!!

134. Forensic science
135. Need poetry
136. Better biographies and music coverage
137. ART!
138. genealogy
139. Art and music
140. specific biographies
141. sports
142. more Elementary Resources including World Book again
143. Arts and Humanities

147. music
148. I would like to see more articles relating to middle school social studies and science.
149. geography
150. Elementary Education as in more databases for children
151. This is an excellent resource!!!
152. Careers
153. High school students research topics on social issues such as illegal drugs, pregnancy, abuse, and teen runaways. Any data on these type of topics would be useful.
154. The career section needs to be re-done. It is virtually useless for students.
155. vocational, archaeology, plant biology
156. Career Literary criticism
157. Children's literature
158. Poetry
159. Social Work

Q. Please recommend any specific database that you would like to see added to KYVL:

Responses

1. JSTOR, PMLA, Philosopher's Index, Project Muse, NewsBank: (Louisville) Courier-Journal Collection, CINAHL Plus Text, Education Full Text
2. MLA Dissertation abstracts
3. essentially I avoid KYVL, too many databases and the students want full text articles. Info trac and Health Reference Center are the two that I use and point students toward and they generally find what they are looking for and usually full text materials.
4. Oxford English Dictionary
5. Grolier databases for school use Granger's World of Poetry World Book (full format)
6. Value Line
7. Lands and Peoples Grolier America The Beautiful Grolier
8. mla bib; books in print; new york times index;
9. For collection development purposes, some certainty that over time we will have consistent access to periodicals.
10. Bridges, SIRS
11. good list already
12. none
